

At KTNV-Channel 13 Action News we are committed to making Las Vegas a better place for locals and their families. We strive to solve the everyday problems that can make life in Las Vegas frustrating.

Action News tackles problems that government and big business ignore. We ask the tough questions and hold those in authority accountable.

Attached are the community based stories covered by KTNV-Channel 13 for 1Q11 reflecting (5) significant issues that Southern Nevadans are affected by the most; Health and Welfare, Economic Development, Politics, Education and Public Safety.

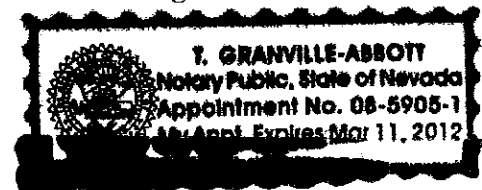

Our community involvement extended far beyond covering these issues in our newscasts this 1Q11. Along with covering these stories that matter to the Southern Nevada community, Journal Broadcast Group's On-Air Talent and Behind-the-Scenes staff addressed our community's needs by participating in local events that were areas of concern for them.

Specific to 1Q11 was the first annual "Books 4 Kids" drive developed by KTNV that raised 5,000+ books for Clark County Students. The focus on kids in our community didn't stop with this literary fundraiser as several of our Action News Anchors and Reporters in went into our School District in February and read to kids during Nevada Reading Week. Whereas the focus for Nevada Reading week was solely on educating kids, our KTNV Talent were able to be educated themselves through the annual Tastes & Sounds of Soul event that exposed over 15,000 attendees to a variety of cultures.

Another "F" was given in the state's programs that encourage quitting. Our cigarette tax rate earned a "D". NEWS SEGMENT: The top priority for any parent is their child's health. But a private foundation says Nevada ranks dead last in for children's health care. According to the Commonwealth Fund, Nevada finished 51st out of all the states and the District of Columbia on its scorecard for "Child Health System Performance". The report says doctors don't even see half of Nevada's Children on a regular basis. Local experts say the state simply doesn't have enough medical professionals. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 02/02/11- 6PM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

Immunizations are also offered from 8AM to 430PM Monday-Friday @ Southern Nevada Health District offices. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 02/11/11- 630PM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Child care providers in Nevada may soon be required to receive training in childhood obesity. Supporters say as more mothers work outside the home, child care providers play a larger role in kids' health and development. Produced by Rosemary O'Donnell, Broadcast Date: 02/16/11- 6AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: It seems that Nevadans have some of the worst eating habits in the Nation. That's according to a website called '24-7 Wall Street'. All proceeds benefit the Children's Heart Foundation which assists families in Nevada whose children have been touched by heart disease. Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 02/26/11- 5AM Newscast. (:30 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: If Nevada isn't happy with the new Health Care Law, it can come up with its own. That's the message President Obama is sending to every state that's suing to overturn his legislation. The president endorsed a senate proposal yesterday that would let states submit their own health care plans. The proposals would have to be as affordable and comprehensive as the federal law and cover as many people. Produced by Ronia Shamona, Broadcast Date: 03/01/11- 11AM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: A new survey is out on obesity in America and it's a mixed review of Nevada. The state doesn't rank in the top 10 most obese states, but the Gallup poll says obesity is on the rise here. Nevada is tied for the second largest increase in obesity, up 2.7% between 2009 and 2010. The study says an estimated 26% of all Nevadans are now considered obese. Produced by Ronia Shamona, Broadcast Date: 03/10/11- 11AM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Here in the Valley, patients of Doctor Michael Kaplan will be hearing from the Nevada Health District soon. Health District officials are working to notify people who might have been effected after they say Kaplan re-used medical equipment. His medical license was suspended Monday, after being accused of re-using needle guides during prostate exams and biopsies. According to the District, reusing guides puts patients at risk for blood born diseases like HIV and Hepatitis C. Health Officials don't know of any outbreak in the Valley related to this, but the Health District says diseases like HIV or Hepatitis C can take years to surface. Produced by Brandon Odom, Broadcast Date: 03/16/11- 5AM Newscast. (:50 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The Southern Nevada Health District is changing one of its policies to encourage people to Kick Butts. Starting today, in recognition of the annual 'Kick Butts' day no one can use tobacco products on Health District Property including parking areas used by staff, volunteers and clients. Visitors will see signs at all entrances to remind them of the new tobacco-free policy. Produced by Rhonia Shamona, Broadcast Date: 03/23/11- 4PM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: We can now get a better idea of how healthy Clark County is compared to other counties in the state, thanks to a first of its kind report. The University of Wisconsin's Population Health Institute and Robert Wood Johnson Foundation released this research. It's called the County Health Rankings, and it's the first set of reports to look at the overall health of every county in every state. So here in Nevada, 15 counties were ranked. Among the 15, Clark County came in 9th and Nye County came in 14th. Researchers looked at how long people lived in each county, but also health factors such as rate of smoking, obesity and binge drinking, access to primary care, air pollution and unemployment also factored in (which hurt us here in Clark County)... If you are looking to stay in Nevada, the healthiest place to live, according to this report, is Douglas County. Produced by Brandon Odom, Broadcast Date: 03/31/11- 5AM Newscast. (:90 Seconds).

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

NEWS SEGMENT: Business leaders from across the Southwest were in town for an economic conference at UNLV. The goal of Nevada 2.0 Summit was to discuss the many ways they've kept industries thriving in their states during these tough times and to share with our local and state officials new ideas that could help stimulate business and job growth right here in Nevada... Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 01/08/11- 6AM Weekend Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Some bittersweet economic news for Las Vegas. New home sales went up slightly in 2010 when compared to 2009. "Home Builders Research" found that the median price for new houses also increased by about 1%. However, the number of existing homes that sold in 2010 dropped nearly 5% when compared to 2009. Produced by Rosemary O'Donnell, Broadcast Date: 01/18/11- 6AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Nevada has the nation's highest rate of foreclosures, and unfortunately it may stay that way for a while. Economists looked over Government figures that would explain why people don't buy homes in certain markets. The Silver State's problem, foreclosures and unemployment rates. Experts say Nevada is in such a bad shape, even Federal Assistance may not help turn us around. Produced by Ronia Shamona, Broadcast Date: 01/20/11- 11AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Good News for our economy, people who are coming to town seem to be spending their money. State figures show taxable sales shot up nearly 3% in November totaling $3.1 billion for the month. That's the fifth straight month of gains. Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 01/29/11- 6AM Weekend Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: New numbers have just been released detailing the gaming industry here in Nevada. And there's actually an upside despite another loss. The latest numbers come from the Gaming Control Board and they focus on the State's Largest Casinos; the one's that gross one million dollars or more a year. That makes up close to 300 casinos statewide. Overall they combined nearly $21 billion in total revenue in 2010. That's down more than 5% from the year before. While that's not good news there is a glimmer of hope that things are starting to turn around. The Casinos lost a combined $3.4 billion during 2010. That's actually an improvement over the year before. In 2009 losses were nearly double that at about $6.8 billion. But still, Economists say it's not where we want to be... Produced by Ronia Shamona, Broadcast Date: 01/31/11- 11AM Newscast. (:85 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: "Optimistic" best describes how local business leaders feel about the Nevada economy. That's according to the UNLV Center for Business and Economic Research. The business confidence report index is at the highest level since the recession started. UNLV Economists say the index went above the 100 mark for the first time in its three year history. They say that symbolizes renewed hope and optimism about the state economy. More than a third of those surveyed see the economy improving between now and March. Produced by Brandon Odom, Broadcast Date: 02/04/11- 5AM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Hundreds of Business Leaders gathered at the Thomas and Mack to find out what direction our local economy is heading. Experts attended "Preview Las Vegas 2011" yesterday. It's the largest business networking and financial forecasting event of the year. Experts say the city showing significant signs of recovery with tourism and gaming numbers steadily on the rise. But they also pointed out that the Valley's biggest challenge continues to be its massive jobless rate; a hurdle that stands in the way of a full comeback. The Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce says it's working on a number of projects all geared towards getting corporations to relocate to Nevada with hopes of creating more jobs. Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 02/12/11- 5AM Weekend Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Some new economic forecasts are pointing toward a recovery for retailers on the Las Vegas Strip. The Las Vegas Sun is reporting the research firm 'Marcus and Millichap' is projecting tourism will surge by more than 8% this year. That in turn should provide a big boost to stores on Las Vegas Boulevard. The report is somewhat bullish on 2011, forecasting local companies will add about 14,000 new jobs by the end of the year. The firm sees business really picking up for stores near the new Cosmopolitan. However projections for other parts of the Valley aren't quite as optimistic. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 02/15/11- 6PM Newscast. (:35 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: New numbers are painting a pretty grim picture of how the economic slowdown has affected the Las Vegas Valley, but there is a silver lining for some. It looks like it is a buyer's market. According to Sales-Traq, the median price for an existing home in January was $109,000. Prices haven't been that low since 1991. It's a drop of 9% since January of last year. Existing homes were going around $120,000. Of course it's an even bigger drop from our real estate peak. Standard and Poor says prices in Las Vegas have fallen 58% since 2006. Experts say prices are continuing to drop because of foreclosures sales... Produced by Brandon Odom, Broadcast Date: 02/23/11- 5AM Newscast. (:90 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: More pain at the pump as local gas prices rose another penny overnight. That brings the Las Vegas average to $3.57 a gallon. It's also raising concerns that high gas prices could start to have an impact on our big financial engine, tourism, just as the Las Vegas Economy struggles to get back on the road. The last thing Las Vegas needs is for the tourism industry to take another hit; so while visitors are paying more to fly or drive into the Valley, will higher gas prices really stop them from coming?... Southwest Airlines recently announced ticket prices would increase by $10 on many flights to offset higher fuel prices. Allegiant Air has also announced a new pricing option to let you choose between a locked-in fare or a lower fare that could go up or down depending on fuel costs before the date of travel. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 03/08/11- 630PM Newscast. (:95 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The latest jobless figures show the state and city unemployment rate is down, but it's not all good news. Unemployment in Las Vegas fell from 15.1% in December to 13.7% in January. And statewide, the jobless rate fell 7 tenths of a point to 14.2%. Economists say 2,000 Nevadans were hired in January. The problem is they say the new numbers don't reflect the fact that 14,000 people simply stopped looking for jobs. Reasons people have been dropping out of the labor force is they're discouraged they haven't found work and/or unemployment benefits have run out so people don't have to keep looking for work to keep getting those benefits. Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 03/12/11- 5AM Weekend Newscast. (:50 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The Construction Industry is on the rebound everywhere except Las Vegas. That's the word from economists at the Bellagio yesterday. They were there for the Annual Associated General Contractors of America Convention. Luncheon Attendees heard a grim forecast for Southern Nevada. Private funds are fueling new projects nationwide, like apartment and medical complexes and hotels, but private dollars are scarce here in Nevada and public dollars are drying up. Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date: 03/25/11- 11AM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Las Vegas Home Prices are at the lowest they've been in 11 years, making us one of the most depressed housing markets in the country. Analysts say factors include the amount of unemployed there are in Southern Nevada and the fact that there are so many homes on the market right now. Buyers are really at an advantage especially here in the Valley where interest rates are at historic lows. But this news is frustrating to homeowners that have been waiting for a rebound. Budin says a rebound in home prices will take a rebound in the economy, then more people will start visiting Vegas again, creating more jobs and so on. Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date: 03/29/11- 11AM Newscast. (:85 Seconds).

POLITICS

NEWS SEGMENT: Nevada has a new Governor tonight. Brian Sandoval made history today being sworn in as Nevada's first Hispanic Governor. Afterward he laid out his ambitious and optimistic vision to return the Silver State to prominence... The governor's first challenge could be the toughest. Little more than a month away with the Nevada Legislative session under a severe budget crisis, Sandoval has yet to lay out a plan other than promising no new taxes, and there will be reductions across the state... For some there's promise of new beginnings with a new administration. Hopeful the best could still be yet to come... Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 01/03/11- 6PM Newscast. (120 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: US Senator John Ensign isn't worried about anyone challenging his seat. Ensign gave the message to reporters in Reno yesterday. The Republican says he plans to seek re-election next year, but admits he will have a "very, very difficult" campaign because of his affair with a former aide. Representative Dean Heller told those same reporters that he's still considering challenging his fellow party member for the Senate spot. Produced by Ronia Shamona, Broadcast Date: 01/13/11- 11AM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Back here in Nevada, Former U.S. Attorney and State Assemblyman Greg Brower will take over for retired State Senator Bill Raggio. Brower was one of a dozen candidates vying for Raggio's seat. Raggio retired Saturday after 38 years in the Nevada Senate. Produced by Brandon Odom, Broadcast Date: 01/19/11- 5AM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: It's filing day for Municipal races in Southern Nevada. One race we're all keeping our eyes on is for the Mayor of Las Vegas. Oscar Goodman will be termed out this year and his successor will have big shoes and an even bigger martini glass to fill. Even though only a handful of people have publicly announced their candidacy, the race for mayor is expected to be a crowded one. The list of aspiring candidates includes Katherine Duncan, a businesswoman and president of the Ward 5 Chamber of Commerce who says she's got the answers to turn the Valley's Economy around... Others who are looking to add their names to the race; Councilman Steve Ross, Clark County Commissioners Larry Brown and Chris Giunchigliani. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 01/25/11- 6PM Newscast. (:90 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Former Nevada Congresswoman Dina Titus is repaying an old debt to political ally Bob Coffin. Back in 1988 when Coffin was a State Senator, he paid the filing fee when Titus ran for Nevada Senate. Yesterday she returned the favor by paying Coffin's filing fee to run for Las Vegas City Council this coming April 2011. Produced by Brandon Odom, Broadcast Date: 01/26/11- 5AM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Our State Lawmakers head back to work next week in Carson City, so it's not surprising that the finger pointing and verbal jabs between Democrats and Republicans is beginning. GOP Leaders in both the Assembly and Senate are accusing Democrats of trying to confuse taxpayers about Governor Sandoval's Budget Plan. Democrats say the Spending Plan is full of parlor tricks... We'll have a crew up there to bring you live reports. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 02/02/11- 6PM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Nevada Lawmakers agree to cut their pay to help close the budget gap. The voluntary 4.6% pay cut for every Senator and Assembly person means they'll each make just under $9,000 dollars during the Legislative session. They'll make $403 less, meaning a little over $25,000 dollars will be returned to the General Fund. Produced by Rosemary O'Donnell, Broadcast Date: 02/08/11- 6AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Now to the Legislative Session here in Nevada. The State Assembly has punted on four bills vetoed by Former Governor Jim Gibbons. One would have granted State Workers some collective bargaining rights. Another deals with provisions governing Las Vegas Police. The Former Governor also vetoed a bill on revising investments of certain state funds, along with a bill that could have created a Highway Advisory Panel. The bills were among a record 48 bill vetoed by Gibbons in the 2009 session. The Assembly could take them up later in the session. Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 02/12/11- 5AM Newscast. (:30 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Four seats will be up for grabs on the powerful Clark County Commission next year, and an unlikely candidate is throwing his hat into the ring. 19-year-old Wesley Cornwell kicked off his campaign yesterday. The UNLV Freshman and Rancho High School Alum will be the youngest to ever run for the Commission. He plans to run as a Republican for the seat in District D. That spot is currently held by a Democrat, Lawrence Weekly. Cornwell has yet to talk to party leaders, but believes the public will support him no matter what age he is... Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 02/20/11- 5AM Weekend Newscast. (:60 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: In just a few minutes several candidates who want to become Las Vegas' New Mayor will hit the airwaves. Carolyn Goodman, Victor Chaltiel, Larry Brown, Steve Ross and Katie Duncan will be a part of a radio debate. They'll be at the Bagel Café on North Buffalo Drive beginning at noon. You can catch the debate on KLAV-1230AM, hosted by Mike Wiley. Produced by Rhonia Shamona, Broadcast Date: 02/25/11- 11AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Former Democratic Gubernatorial Candidate and son of Senate Majority Leader, Rory Reid is back in the news after allegations that his campaign may have tried to skirt contribution limits during November's election. The Sun reported that Reid's campaign formed 91 Shell Political Action Committees' that were used to funnel $750,000 into his campaign. Reid says the maneuvers were disclosed and in compliance with the law. Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 03/05/11- 8AM Weekend Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: In tonight's political coverage, a shocker today from Nevada Senator John Ensign who says he will not seek re-election in 2012. Until today, Ensign left no doubt in anyone's mind he would seek a third term... The change of heart appears to have come after praying with his wife. They decided the reality of how brutal this campaign would be, ultimately wasn't worth the fight. Produced by Traci Wilson, Broadcast Date: 03/07/11- 11PM Newscast. (:35 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Sharron Angle is throwing her hat in the political ring again, announcing today she's running for the Congressional District-2 Seat being vacated by Dean Heller. Angle made the announcement in a You Tube video. She's been busy recently with appearances in Iowa and South Carolina, sparking rumors she might run for President. Angle now hopes to replace Heller, who announced plans to run for the Senate Seat being vacated by John Ensign. Produced by Allison Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 03/16/11- 4PM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Another 21-hundred people turned out today to cast early ballots ahead of the April 5th Primary. That brings the early voting total to just fewer than 10,000. The big draw for many voters is the Las Vegas Mayor's race. Early voting ends April 1st. Produced by Traci Wilson, Broadcast Date: 03/22/11- 11PM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The Primary City Elections is a week from today and the outcome will help decide the next Mayor of Las Vegas. While the race has grabbed headlines many people wanting to vote for Oscar Goodman's replacement won't actually be able to. It's because they don't technically live in Las Vegas. Even the famous "Welcome To Las Vegas" sign isn't within city limits. And as many are finding out, their homes aren't in Las Vegas either. City limits are anything north of Sahara, but with many holes and exceptions. Many don't even live in a city at all. Almost the entire west side is Unincorporated Clark County. These people are represented by County Commissioners... Produced by Traci Wilson, Broadcast Date: 03/29/11- 11PM Newscast. (:90 Seconds).

EDUCATION

NEWS SEGMENT: Parents, today is your last chance to apply for CCSD's Open Enrollment Program. Open Enrollment gives parents a choice. Instead of sticking to their schools zoned in their neighborhood, they can opt to send their students somewhere else. Here's how the process works. Parents pick their top 3 choices. Schools already at or over capacity will not be included as choices. Career Academies, Magnet Schools and Kindergartens will also be excluded. Then names are selected by a random lottery... Produced by Brandon Odom, Broadcast Date: 01/07/11- 5AM Newscast. (:90 seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Some state lawmakers jumped on a bus today to take a firsthand look at the education system in Clark County. Members of the Nevada State Assembly visited 4 schools so they could have the chance to observe what's happening and ask questions. Because of pending budget cuts, many school programs could be on the chopping block and it's a big concern for lawmakers who are champions of education... Produced by Allison Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 01/14/11- 4PM Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The new Clark County Superintendent wants to spend up to a million dollars in private funds for analysis of the District's 2 billion dollar budget. Chief Dwight Jones told trustees, if approved, he'll use the money to review what he calls "Return on Investment" for the School District. Produced by Traci Wilson, Broadcast Date: 01/16/11- 6PM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Parents and educators are coming together to try to find a solution to the high dropout rate in Clark County... Participants talked about obstacles facing students. A major problem is found with students who start working early and drop out. Parents say if local businesses want an educated group of people to hire in the future, they need to help students graduate. Organizers of Friday's community discussion say this is only a start. They hope to take possible solutions to the School Board and the community. The discussion was hosted in partnership with Clark County Education Association, the National Education Association and the AT&T Foundation. Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 01/22/11- 8AM Weekend Newscast. (:60) Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Nevada fourth and eighth grade students aren't doing well in science when compared to kids across the country. The Nevada Department of Education announced that after reviewing a national report card. Although a majority of kids showed they had at least a basic understanding of science, they were about eight points below the national average. Produced by Rosemary O'Donnell, Broadcast Date: 01/27/11- 6AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Nevada Education Officials say Silver State Schools are not as bad as they're made out to be in an article from a leading education magazine. "Education Week" reports less than 42% of Nevada High School Students actually graduate. State Officials call the article misleading and say the figure is over 67%. They say when a student fails the Nevada High School exit exam he or she is classified as a non-graduate. About 1200 Nevada students fell into that category last school year. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 02/15/11- 6PM Newscast. (:30 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: A somber message to the faculty at UNLV this week. The school may have to file bankruptcy. Sandoval's proposal would have UNLV trim about $48 million from its budget over the next 2-years. That's on top of the $49 million already cut in the past 4-years. University President Neal Smartresk says departments, programs and entire colleges could be eliminated to deal with the budget crisis. Smartresk says he hopes Governor Sandoval's budget doesn't become reality. Faculty jobs and salaries may be cute regardless of contracts. Produced by Allison Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 02/16/11- 4PM Newscast. (:30 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: School lobbyists decided not to back a bill that would help high school students' graduate and prepare for college even though they believe it's a good idea. The State Assembly Education Committee held a hearing yesterday for the wide ranging bill. It would have required schools to tell students about honors or technical courses, while calling for more remedial classes for those who are struggling. The bill was presented just as a national poll ranked Nevada dead last when it came to high school graduation rates. Produced by Rosemary O'Donnell, Broadcast Date: 02/22/11- 6AM Newscast. (:30 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Here in our state, a budget shortfall at the College of Southern Nevada could mean some tough decisions on campus. CSN's President says the proposed budget by Brian Sandoval would cut the state's higher education funding by $162 million dollars. CSN's share of the cut would be $26 million. If those cuts go through, he said CSN might have to close a campus and most or all of its 9-satellite centers. The college probably would have to turn away an additional 13,000 students. Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 02/26/11- 6AM Weekend Newscast. (:30 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: A new report is out this midday showing the states with the lowest reading scores. Unfortunately Nevada is near the bottom. According to the National Assessment of Educational Progress, 76% of Nevada fourth graders aren't reading at a fourth grade level. Massachusetts came in first place, with 47% of its students scoring "Proficient" or above. Produced by Ronia Shamona, Broadcast Date: 02/28/11- 11AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Nevada's Legislators are also reviewing three education reform bills to help improve classrooms across the state. Under those bills teachers would be evaluated more often, earn performance based pay and could be fired if they or their students fall short. One bill would mean a statewide teacher evaluation system where 50% of teacher's scores would come from student performance. The second bill would require educators who receive unsatisfactory reviews for two consecutive years to re-enter a probation period. And the third bill would require schools to set up a system of merit to pay and create policies to fire under-performing teachers. Produced by Ronia Shamona, Broadcast Date: 03/03/11- 11AM Newscast. (:35 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Clark County School Superintendent Dwight Jones spoke out Friday about plans to re-shuffle faculty at (5) under performing schools. Jones says he fully supports the turnaround plan in compliance with the 'No Child Left Behind Act'. Under the guidelines to receive federal funding, teachers at Mohave, Western and Chaparral High Schools along with teachers at Elizondo and Hancock elementaries will have to re-apply for their jobs. Jones says the idea isn't to single out teachers, but to retain those who've made significant progress with their students. With the exception of Western and Hancock the other schools will also lose their principals. The incoming principals will be responsible for selecting faculty members for next year. Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 03/12/11- 5AM Weekend Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The School Board is now openly discussing the possibility of an Adequate Law Suit, charging that the state has failed to establish a proper educational system, and because the funding is inadequate, the education isn't meeting constitutional requirements. So if you're asking yourself what is an Adequate Education, Legislators asked themselves that very same question in 2006 when they did the study to estimate the cost of an Adequate Education in Nevada. And since the findings have done little to take CCSD out of the red, Board Members are now exploring all legal options. "There's a problem using taxpayer dollars to sue the state for more taxpayer money". That's why the plaintiff has to be a parent or a nonprofit group like the PTA. The Advocacy Group says at this point they don't plan on filing a suit, because they don't know whether the outcome would actually provide a solution to the problem. "Is there in fact more money provided and by using that avenue, do we increase student success? That's the bottom line."... Produced by Allison Anslinger, Broadcast Date 03/18/11- 5PM Newscast.

NEWS SEGMENT: The latest round of proposed school cuts have been labeled as "Catastrophic" unleashing an outpouring of criticisms. "Start taking from people that have money and leave our teachers and schools alone." Parents are outraged by the possibility of larger class sizes and less instructors in the class rooms. CCSD Board President Carolyn Edwards along with the other Trustees will be forced to consider a salary reduction of 7.8% for all teaching, administrative and support staff, in addition to eliminating almost 2500 jobs to balance the District's budget. She expressed the frustrations that a lot of CCSD employees are feeling. "We are mad as hell right now". Murillo insists that the governor's promise to let the current taxes expire without finding other sources of revenue will deliver the final blow to the state's public school system. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 03/25/11- 6PM Newscast. (:90 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: State lawmakers want kids to actually learn material before they are tested on it. The Assembly Education Committee passed a bill yesterday that would ask Federal Education Officials to push standardized test timelines back about a month. Nevada teachers testified they had to cram lessons into the first half of the semesters so students could take a required test half-way through the term. Produced by Rosemary O'Donnell, Broadcast Date: 03/29/11- 6AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

Gillespie met with Senator Harry Reid while he was there. Last year Clark County received a $1.5 million law enforcement grant. As a result of meetings like these Metro has acquired a million dollars in funding to upgrade the computers used to track criminal activity. Produced by Allison Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 01/25/11- 5PM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

Produced by Allison Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 02/22/11- 5PM Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: A local nonprofit gave away 150 booster seats to needy families here in the Valley. The goal of yesterday's event by Safe Kids is to raise awareness that kids between the ages of four and eight should always be strapped into a booster seat. The law states that a child must ride in the appropriate child safety seat, for their height and weight, until they are 6 years old or 60 pounds. NEWS SEGMENT: A disturbing trend in North Las Vegas-where nearly half of the murder cases from last year remain unsolved. Police say they still need information on 6 out of 15 cases and say most involve people who knew each other, but some were random acts of violence that led to murder after victims fought back. "There has been an increase in robbery victims fighting back against their assailants and that's a very dangerous situation, because if you're a victim of a robbery and that person is only out to get your wallet or your jewelry or something of that sort that type of situation can escalate because the victim fights back." North Las Vegas Police say the city's homicide rate has dropped over the past five-years from a high of 29 in 2007 to 15 in 2010.

Produced by Jim Evans, Broadcast Date: 03/09/11- 5AM Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Back here at home residents in the Northeast part of the Valley say they are really concerned that they are losing control of their neighborhoods to thugs and criminals. Neighbors tell us life out there is getting scary. Since a cab driver was first found shot to death a week ago, the Northeast part of town has erupted in violence; most recently, the stabbing of a man in the neck with a screwdriver Friday afternoon. The mother of Sergio Lopez was at a memorial where her son was shot and killed Thursday night on East Lake Mead. She echo's what other neighbors say in describing the area like a war zone. Lots of residents wish there was a way to solve the crime problem or get out. Metro says they are aware of the recent surge in crimes in this area. They are working to keep them from escalating, and solving these most recent cases. Police are asking for anyone with information on these crimes to call Crime Stoppers at (702)385-5555.

They started out like any kids, full of hope and dreams - but now they're homeless and in terrible danger of slipping between the cracks. ## PRIMETIME: WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

- Dine and Dash: Three loud teenage boys, out for a meal at an established family restaurant, dare each other to exit without paying for their food. When the check arrives, one by one they slyly make their way out of the diner - having just pulled off a "dine and dash." How will fellow diners respond?
- Yelling at the Elderly: What will people do if they saw an elderly man being taunted by a group of teenage boys -- will anyone confront the kids and step in to save the senior? What will happen if, instead of an elderly man, the boys decide to harass an elderly woman? Finally, what if the bullies are teenage girls?

- GOLD DIGGER: A young, attractive woman sits at the bar with her fiancé -- a much older man. When he goes to the restroom, the woman confides in the bartender, telling him she can't wait for her fiancé to die so she can get his money and finally marry someone her own age. - FAKE SLIP AND FALL: It's a multi-billion dollar scam -- a customer in a store slips and falls, then threatens to sue the store for damages. What happens when our perpetrator tries to pull this scam in front of eyewitnesses who know that no such accident occurred in the first place?

Friday, February 4, 2011

- ARIZONA IMMIGRATION LAW: What will bystanders do when they observe people being racially profiled right in front of them? "WWYD" travels to Arizona, which has recently enacted a controversial illegal immigration law that would permit law enforcement to seek identification from people suspected of being illegal aliens, even having committed no crime. Will anyone speak up when they observe an off-duty security guard confront a Latino family at a restaurant and demand identification for no apparent reason other than their appearance? In a twist, John Quinones himself steps into the role of the one being questioned.

Friday, February 25, 2011

- GAY MILITARY SERVICEMEN: It has only been two months since the military's "don't ask, don't tell" policy was repealed. While polls show a majority of Americans support the end of the 17-year-old policy, others have openly opposed the decision. - GAY MILITARY SERVICEMENT: It has only been two months since the military's "don't ask, don't tell" policy was repealed, with the final implementation awaiting review by the President, the Secretary of Defense and the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. While polls show a majority of Americans support the end of the 17-year-old policy, others have openly opposed the decision. - MISBEHAVING KIDS: Will anyone in a diner approach a parent whose two out-of-control kids are wreaking havoc, disturbing some of the customers? Friday, March 11, 2011

- WORK-OUT FROM HELL: Health clubs and fitness centers around the country are more popular than ever, but they're also a hotbed for some bad behavior and lack of respect for others. "WWYD's" hidden cameras looks at etiquette at the gym - will anyone speak up when a man monopolizes the equipment, or refuses to clean up his weights, or chats on his cell phone while others wait their turn? And what will happen when the "WWYD" "gym member" enters a gym class late, talks and laughs and even take on the instructor during the routine?

When she excuses herself to go to the bathroom, the husband aggressively hits on a single woman seating nearby, asking if she would like to go out sometime. Will bystanders blow the husband's cover when his wife comes back from the bathroom?
- ONLINE BULLYING: The anonymity of the internet allows individuals to bully and tease relentlessly and often with little consequence. So "WWYD" set up a scenario to see if any patrons of a coffee shop will intervene when they overhear "mean girls" harassing a fellow classmate over the internet with degrading comments and unflattering pictures.

Friday, March 18, 2011

- FAVORITISM: Will fellow shoppers say anything when a mother clearly favors one daughter, making rude comments to her other daughter, while shopping at a clothing store?
- TEEN BIKINI FAT: When a mother berates her daughter at the beach for wearing a bikini that makes her look fat, throwing insult after insult, will anyone stand up for the daughter?
- SERVICE DOG DISCRIMINATION: A woman who relies on her service dog is harassed by fellow diners at a restaurant. The disabled person assures the manager that, not only is the dog specially trained and well behaved, but it is legal for her to have him with her at a restaurant. But the maitre d' / manager sides with the other diners. How will other patrons react?
- LAUNDROMAT THEFT: What will happen when someone starts to steal clothes from someone else's dryer at a laundromat? Will anyone confront the potential thief?

Friday, March 25, 2011

- RACE APPROPRIATE TOYS: A landmark study conducted in the 1940s, and cited to support desegregation in Brown v Board of Education, showed that a majority of black children showed an inherent preference for playing with white dolls over black dolls, identifying with the white dolls and displaying a poignant disconnect from dolls of their own skin color. Fast forward to 2011 – what happens when a white child opts for a black doll and vice versa? What if the caretakers for the children begin admonishing the children for their choice of dolls? Will anyone intervene?
- WAITER SERVING DIRTY FOOD: When a waiter drops food on the floor and serves it to an unsuspecting couple sitting in a booth, will anyone warn the couple or say anything to the waiter? Twist: Will anyone say anything after they hear how rude and obnoxious the couple is to the waiter?
- CHEATING HUSBAND: When a travelling businessman makes his daily Skype call to check in with his wife, he says all the right things – telling her he misses her and that he hates the marathon meetings he's been stuck in. Unfortunately, the other customers at this internet café are seeing a much different picture. What they know and the wife doesn't, is that he has a woman with him just off camera... and the only business they're up to is funny business. Will customers step in to say something to the man?
- TOO THIN MODEL: An already thin teen model type is berated by her agent to eat less. When the young woman tries to order something other than a salad, the agent scolds her. Will anyone intervene?
